

FAQ's

Why should I use OZXchange Migration?

- Staff who have experienced the immigration process personally
- Latest migration software used for recording and lodging visas electronically
- Staff attend continuing professional development courses
- City location in Northern New South Wales
- We will STOP for you!

Do you have a Registered Migration Agent?

Yes.

Mr Hendrik van der Merwe - Qualified in Migration Law (Murdoch University, WA)

Migration Agents Registration Authority (MARA) No. 0848966

Migration Institute of Australia (MIA) Member No. 3162

Can I meet with the RMA in person?

Yes. Please complete and submit an online appointment form.

Most of our initial interviews are conducted by telephone and are free of charge.

Our Registered Migration Agent also travels to certain countries. Please enquire or check the website regarding the next overseas visit.

How much can I earn in my profession?

See: My Career <http://mycareer.com.au/> and Seek: <http://www.seek.com.au/>

These websites show positions that are currently being advertised. Salary levels are indicative only and subject to change.

Can I apply for a job in Australia?

You may only apply for a position in Australia after your visa has been approved by the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. You must abide by any conditions included in your visa. If you do not have work rights, you cannot work in Australia.

Is there a checklist?

See: Sabona Magazine "100 Point Immigration Checklist - From making the initial decision to shutting up shop".

Who can be included in my application?

This will depend on the eligibility requirements or restrictions of the visa class you are applying for. See examples: Dependents under General Skilled Migration and Bringing family under a Retirement visa.

How much will it cost to lodge my visa application?

See: Department of Immigration and Citizenship website for the latest fees and charges:
<http://www.immi.gov.au/allforms/990i.htm>

Where can my children go to school?

See: Australian Federal Government website <http://www.deewr.gov.au/Pages/default.aspx> and <http://www.studyinaustralia.gov.au/Sia/Splash.aspx>

and Australian state and territory government websites for more information.

Where can my children or I go to university?

See:

Australian Universities

<http://www.australian-universities.com/>,

Australian Colleges

<http://www.australian-universities.com/colleges/list.php>

Commonwealth Register of Institutions and Courses for Overseas Students

<http://cricos.dest.gov.au/>

What can I bring to Australia?

See: Australian Quarantine and Inspection Service website <http://www.daffa.gov.au/aqis>

What are the different states and territories?

Australia has eight states and territories with three levels of government:

- Commonwealth or Federal Government www.australia.gov.au
- State and Territory Governments
- Local Government (typically regional councils within states and territories)

The states and territories are listed below with links to the state government websites:

Australian Capital Territory

New South Wales

Northern Territory

Queensland

South Australia

Tasmania

Victoria

Western Australia

Are Registered Migration Agents bound by a Code of Conduct?

Yes. See: Code of Conduct

What is "IRMAP"?

IRMAP is Information about the Regulation of the Migration Advice Profession. IRMAP is a document that tells you what your RMA can and can't do. See this link: IRMAP

Can I get a refund?

Refunds will not be paid under any circumstances.

Confidentiality

We guarantee not to sell or convey your personal details to any company or individual without your permission. We reserve the right to pass on your details to relevant authorities in the process of preparing or lodging applications on your behalf.

Disclaimer

Ozxchange Migration aims to provide accurate and timely information on our website, however, we cannot accept responsibility for errors or omissions. Australian laws and requirements are changing constantly. It is important that you check to ensure that the information you are providing or are acting on is correct and current. Information on this website is not to be taken as advice. It is provided in general terms as a guide only. All cases must be taken on their own merit individually. The contents and format of the OZXchange Migration website are subject to Copyright© laws. Unauthorised use of any format or information may be subject to prosecution.